BORAH FOR COOLIDGE

Idaho, Falls, Idaho, Oct. 2.—Declaration that Calvin Coolidge is "the only President who has had the courage to combat the growing tendency toward bureaucracy and extravagance and therefore is one of the greatest men in the political history of the United States," was made in an address here last night by United States Senator William E. Borah (Rep., Idaho).

"He has had the courage and courage is a rare thing in Washington—to vote bills which provide for establishment of new bureaus," Borah added. "Whatever you do you cannot take this credit away from him."

Sticks to Republican Party

The senator said he believed he could do more good in the Republican party than out of it. This remark he made in mentioning the fact that the Idaho Progressive had nominated him for United States senator as well as his being up for reelection on the Republican ticket. Senator Borah expressed friendship and admiration for Robert La Follette, but added that as he had suffered with Theodore Roosevelt in 1912 he must in this campaign differ with the race of the Wisconsin senator for President.

Declined to Follow Roosevelt

"In 1912 one in whose leadership I had great confidence, one for whom I had almost unbounded admiration, and whose friendship I enjoyed, left the party and sought to organize a third party. I declined to follow," Senator Borah said.

"Now, another man, whose friendship I have also enjoyed, Senator La Follette, for whose sincerity of purpose and ability I have great admiration, heads a third party. I entertain no doubts as to where I can be of the most service if I am to remain in public life. I propose to fight for clean, economic government for progressive principles inside the Republican party."

ZR-3 GETS U. S. VISES FOR TRIP OVER ATLANTIC

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, Oct. 2.—

The giant Zeppelin ZR-3, built for the United States navy, was prepared to start on its trans-Atlantic flight Friday, but a little of the old superstition cropped out, and the start will be made Saturday or Sunday, depending on weather reports.

The lifting power of the great ship is sufficient to enable it to carry thirty-eight tons of gasoline instead of the thirty-one estimated by the designers. There will be a full cargo aboard, including mail and food.

The ZR-3 will clear Friedrichshafen the same as an ocean liner. John E. Kohl, American consul at Stuttgart, is here to issue the necessary clearance papers, which will be the same as a ship's papers—Capt.

OWES $291,692 HAS $50, REALTY DEALER DECLARES

Liabilities of $291,692 and assets of $50 were scheduled yesterday by John L. Little, real estate dealer, living at 1561 Catalpa avenue. He filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday. He listed 14 creditors, most of whom hold notes or mortgages on Iowa and North Dakota farm lands purchased by Little during the war. The petition sets forth that most of that land was lost through foreclosure in 1930 and 1931. Most of the creditors live in Dyersville, Ia.; Trempealeau, Wis.; and Drayton, Souderton, and Grafton, N. D.

DEADLOCK PLOT HELPING BOB IN FAR NORTHWEST

Democrats to Knife Davis for State Ticket Aid.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 2.—(Special.)—

The rumored alliance between the Democrats and the third party in support of La Follette with a view to throwing the election in congress is generally regarded as an accomplished fact by political leaders in the northwest.

Whether the union has been brought about deliberately by the connivance of Democratic leaders in this part of the country, or has been produced by natural causes, the result is the same, namely, the disruption of the Democratic party and the strengthening of La Follette to a degree that makes him a formidable contender for the electoral votes of Montana and Washington, if not Idaho, Oregon, Wyoming, and Nevada.

Wheeler Boosts Democrats

Senator Burton K. Wheeler, the third party candidate for Vice President, is now touring the far west. Everywhere he goes he publicly commends Democratic candidates for the senate and for public and state offices and privately promises them the support of the La Follette organization. Deliberately or tacitly entering into the alliance, Democratic candidates with few exceptions have thrown their national ticket overboard and are either openly or covertly bidding for La Follette support while still Democratic.

Democratic leaders have abandoned organized effort for Davis and Bryan. This scuttling of the Democratic craft is viewed with complacency by radical Democrats, who have generally been identified with William Jennings Bryan. They feel that a vote for Davis is in reality a vote for Coolidge, and that their best means of making a vote against Coolidge effective is to cast it for La Follette.

Aids Charles Bryan

Then, if they enable La Follette to throw the election into congress, where the house would be deadlocked indefinitely, Brother Charles Bryan would have an excellent chance of becoming President.

La Follette leaders are reported to be giving assurances to Bryan Democrats that if the election goes to congress La Follette and his group in the senate can be relied upon to furnish the additional votes the Democrats would need to elect Gov. Bryan Vice President in the senate. Having been elected Vice President, Gov. Bryan would become President on March 4 if the house had failed to choose a chief executive.

Conservative Democrats are up in arms over the subtle policy and have been bombarding their national campaign managers with protests, but apparently to no avail. The drift of conservative Democratic sentiment in the far West everywhere is toward support of Coolidge as a last resort to prevent the plot in the interest of La Follette and Bryan.

Cameo Shaver's Prediction

Indications are not wanting that the extent of the secret Democratic-La Follette fusion was well known in the eastern headquarters of the Democratic party weeks ago. This knowledge is believed to have caused Democratic National Chairman Shaver nearly a month ago to assign to La Follette at that time a sufficient number of electoral votes to throw the election into congress. No surprise was

"SLACKER VOTERS" IN AURORA TO BE NAMED IN PAPERS

Aurora, Ill., Oct. 2.—(Special.)—

The names of all legal voters who fail to go to the polls at the presidential election Nov. 4 will be published, it was announced today by A. W. Shipton, president of the Aurora Kiwanis club, which is conducting a campaign to get out a big vote. Names of the "slacker voters" will be taken from the poll books in each precinct after the election, he said.

"We have organized," Mr. Shipton said, "to get out a 100 per cent vote in Aurora. Every man and woman who is entitled to a vote and stays away from the polls on election day is a slacker. We are going to have their names published the same as the names of the slackers were published during the war."

created in these parts among the politicians, who were thoroughly aware of what was going on beneath the surface in the Democratic party.

The contest in Montana looks like a neck and neck race between La Follette and Coolidge, with the present advantage probably in favor of La Follette. This is the home state of Wheeler, who has undertaken to deliver Montana's four electoral votes to the third party if he does nothing more. The Republican managers are confident that Coolidge will carry the state, believing that Republican defection among the farmers can be halted by the rise in the price of wheat.

La Follette probably leads in Washington now. Oregon seems safe for Coolidge, as do Idaho, Wyoming and Utah. Coolidge has a bare chance of carrying Nevada as a result of Democratic defections to La Follette in the towns.

COOLIDGE AHEAD IN MAGAZINE'S POST CARD POLL

New York, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—

The latest report of the Literary Digest's national poll on the presidency, up to its Oct. 11 issue, is out tonight. It has received 1,851,591 returns in its post-card vote. The totals thus far:

For Coolidge 808,240
For La Follette 351,175
For Davis 375,674

The New York tally reads: Coolidge, 45,479; La Follette, 41,740; Davis, 27,791.

In Illinois the vote is: Coolidge, 50,548; La Follette, 35,903; Davis, 15,050. In Indiana Coolidge got 43,646; La Follette, 13,130; Davis, 15,411. In Kansas: Coolidge 37,304; La Follette, 4,675; Davis, 7,943.

Nebraska in the straw vote gives Coolidge more than his two opponents together, as do Colorado, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, New Jersey, Oregon, Pennsylvania, and Washington.

Wisconsin shows 30,413 for La Follette, 23,471 for Coolidge, and 5,321 for Davis. The Digest has sent cards to 15,000,000 voters on registry lists and in telephone directories covering city and rural people.

POLICEMAN, TWO FRIENDS, HELD ON HOLDUP CHARGE

A policeman and two of his friends were placed in cells at the detective bureau last night charged with staging a holdup at the 11th Ward Political club, 2547 South Halsted street. The policeman says the holdup was a joke. But the victims who complain they lost watches, jewelry, and money refuse to see the humor of it.

The men under arrest are Patrolman Thomas F. Noonan, 27 years old, who lives at 1824 West 28th street; George Starr, 181 West 34th street, and "Bunk" Carson, 1824 West 28th street. Noonan has been a policeman for five years. He is stationed in the 11th ward police district, but was off duty when the alleged holdup was staged.

According to the stories told by a number of the twenty men who were at the clubroom when the trio entered, the policeman and his friends sauntered in, took the center of the floor, and one drew a gun.

"Hands up," he commanded. The men in the room, the majority seated around card tables, at first took the order in fun. But the trio repeated the order and the one with the gun waved it menacingly. The club members were lined against the wall and a systematic search of their pockets made. The amount of money and value of jewelry taken was estimated at several hundred dollars.

Four men who lodged formal complaints against the trio were Clarence Ryan, 544 Emerald avenue; George Reilly, 210 West 27th street; Walter Dubeck, 223 West 27th street, and William Smith, 2544 Emerald avenue.

"It was all a joke," Policeman Noonan told Lieut. Joseph Haroughy at the detective bureau. "I issued my gun to my friends as we could have a little fun. We didn't keep any of the money or valuables."

LIKE PROFESSOR, MRS. HART WOULD GIVE MATE AWAY

Sues to Free Him for Mrs. Hall-Quest.

BY MAUREEN M'KERNAN.

Shirley Knox Hall-Quest and Fred W. Hart, who find themselves the center of a bizarre romance in which the lawful mates are aiding them, even though the world may criticize it, may at last be married next Monday.

Mrs. Hart, whose husband deserted a year ago in Cincinnati, that is, she came to Chicago and lives with the wife of Prof. Alfred Lawrence Hall-Quest, has filed a suit for a divorce. It will be heard on Monday in Cincinnati. Prof. Hall-Quest was granted a divorce here Tuesday.

Professor Shields Hart, with the world now knowing that the quiet, staid "Mr. and Mrs. Hart" who have lived this summer in Evanston, are persons of gentle breeding who have deliberately violated the rules of their society, in order to live their lives together, the most dramatic figure in the romance are Lawrence Hall-Quest and Mrs. Hart. While the professor does not pretend to forgive the man who took his wife away, last night he still tried to shield the man for the sake of the wife whom he divorced Tuesday.

And Rosamund Hart, in Cincinnati, is as valiantly doing all she can to make it possible for the two lovers to obey the conventions they have violated.

Mrs. Hart filed the suit a month ago, but she did not name the woman for whom her husband deserted her a year ago. Yesterday she refused to discuss the affair. Her divorce petition is simple. She alleges only "that despite the fact that she was a dutiful, loving, and obedient wife, he (Hart) told her more than two years ago that he was infatuated with another woman and that he no longer loved his wife." To those simple statements Mrs. Hart last night in Cincinnati would add no words.

Formerly Were Neighbors.
Mrs. Hall-Quest and Mr. Hart met about two years ago, when the two families occupied adjoining apartments near the University of Cincinnati, where Prof. Hall-Quest was professor of secondary education. Prof. Hall-Quest joined the university faculty in 1917 and remained until 1923. It is said that the romance developed while the professor was taking a year's leave of absence to do research work at Columbia university. Mrs. Hall-Quest remained behind to study medicine. She would have been graduated in 1924 had she not met Hart, a public accountant, who had been a major in the British army during the war.

Hart had married while in the army, in England, and had brought his wife to America.

It was while Prof. Hall-Quest was in the east in December, 1923, that gossip reached him that the woman he had married in 1909 was in love with another man. He denied the possibility of such a thing at the time. His loyalty then to his wife was such that she alone was able to shake it when she wrote him that she had come to Chicago to live with a man "with whom she had found perfect love."

Professor Shields Hart-Quest, that loyalty the professor still expressed yesterday morning when he was interviewed in his office at the University of Pittsburgh, where he is director of extra-mural instruction. He did not know that the name of the man who had stolen his wife had been revealed.

A trim man, with an erect soldierly figure, the educator answered questions with cool and courteous composure.

PRINCE OF SIAM ARRIVES IN CITY FOR 3 DAY VISIT

Traveling inognito, the Prince of Siam, brother of the King of Siam, arrived in Chicago yesterday for a three day visit. He and his party are the guests of Brig. Gen. Nathan Williams MacChesney, consul general of Siam in Chicago.

Accompanying the prince, who registered at the Drake hotel as Col. Pratipok, is his wife, who is registered as the Princess Prajapitok. Col. Pratipok, in his wife, who is registered as the Princess Prajapitok, Col. Pratipok, in his wife, who is registered as the Princess Prajapitok, Col. Pratipok, in his wife, who is registered as the Princess Prajapitok.

As the royal family is visiting America merely as a matter of pleasure, the greatest precautions were taken to keep the prince's advent a secret. In the afternoon the party drove to Evanston, where an inspection of Northwestern university was made. Both the prince and the princess are highly educated, speak French and English in addition to their native tongue, and are deeply interested in education in foreign lands.

Plans for Entertainment.
Gen. MacChesney and Mrs. MacChesney entertained them in the evening at dinner in their home, 568 Hawthorne place. Judge Hugo Pan, a friend of the prince for many years, will entertain in his honor this noon at the Chicago club and very probably this evening in the Pompeian room of the Congress hotel.

Both the prince and the princess expressed their delight at the hospitality they had received here and the lack of public attention.

CHICAGO'S DAY RECALLS 53 YRS. OF CITY GROWTH

Stadium Ceremonies On at 2 This Afternoon.

Chicago Day Program

3 p. m.—Official dedication of Grant Park stadium, drills, "cow kicking" over lantern in Mrs. O'Leary's barn, polo match. Free seats for 60,000 people.

7 p. m.—Official opening of the Illinois Products Exposition at American Exposition Palace, 668 Lake Shore drive and Erie street opposite exposition palace.

Today is Chicago day! Fifty-three years ago large sections of the city were reduced to a smoldering mass by the great fire, and then Chicago was born anew!

This afternoon, after fifty-three years, it will celebrate its greatness. It was thought fitting by the city officials and others that the $5,000,000 stadium, recently constructed in Grant park, should take its place in Chicago's history, so today Chicago officially dedicates the stadium.

Ceremonies begin at 2 P. M. The Chicago day program will start officially in the stadium at 2 p. m. with a flag raising ceremony and a salute of twenty-one guns in which regular army troops, American Legion posts, and cadets from Morgan Park Military academy will participate.

In the evening the program will be continued at the opening of the Illinois Products Exposition at the American Exposition Palace, 668 Lake Shore drive. There Chicago will join with thirty-five cities throughout the state in celebrating the industrial greatness of Illinois.

At the afternoon ceremonies preparations have been completed to take care of 40,000 people. Admittance is free and arrangements have been made to have a fleet of motor buses carry people to and from the stadium.

U. S. AND JAPAN PEACE SECURE, SAYS NEW ENVOY

Mutual esteem between America and Japan will heal the wounds of the two nations' feelings, according to Edgar A. Bancroft, recently appointed ambassador to Japan, who makes his last speech in America yesterday before leaving for the orient. The address was made before the Chicago Association of Commerce at the weekly luncheon in the Hotel La Salle.

"Nations and men are much alike," he said. "Disagreements do not divide friendships. Mutual respect, admiration, and friendship are bonds that hold. Mutual patience, forbearance, and a generous spirit will heal all wounds. Our present misunderstandings will be ironed out and Japan and America will be true friends."

Following the flag raising Mayor Dever will speak. He will be followed by E. J. Kelly, president of the South park board.

Polo and Cavalry Stunts.
A polo game between a team captained by Col. R. E. McCormick and another headed by Frank Bering will follow. There will be army maneuvers including cavalry stunts, drills and a gymnastic exhibition by the 14th United States Field artillery. A picked squad of 300 from the police department will drill under the direction of Major Bauer.

Then the veterans of the 1871 fire department—eight of them—will man the "Fire King," Chicago's historic hand pump engine and demonstrate how they fought the flames that swept the city fifty-three years ago.

The evening ceremonies at the Illinois Products exposition will be opened by Mayor Dever following fireworks on the lake front opposite the exposition palace. The doors will be opened at 7:30 p. m.

M'ANDREW PLANS HELD UP FOR LACK OF A MAJORITY

That the board of education is divided over some of the policies of Superintendent McAndrew was demonstrated at the board meeting yesterday. Two of the superintendent's proposals to increase efficiency and reduce interruption to teaching time were postponed when it was discovered that the faction that is backing the superintendent was not in a majority at yesterday's meeting.

Mayor Dever declared yesterday he hoped it would not be necessary to reduce the number of teachers, cut their salaries, or extend their hours to economies.

A resolution asking the board to keep the schools open Oct. 13, a legal holiday, was adopted by the Federation of Women High School Teachers.

DAVIS DIGS AT HUGHES; 'TIPTOE DIPLOMACY,' CRY

Candidate Again Cheers for Nation League.

BY DONALD EWING.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 2.—[Special.]—John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee, tonight replied directly to the recent Cleveland speech of Secretary of State Hughes in defense of the Republican administration.

Dealing with the secretary's statements on foreign affairs, Mr. Davis made his strongest pronouncements yet concerning the league of nations. He recalled Mr. Hughes' support of the world court, the administration's support of it, demanded reason for delay in joining it, and suggested that in 1923 advocacy of the court still would be in the Republican platform as an "unrealized but cherished hope."

Charges Tip Toe Diplomacy. "The administration has not been without a motto," he continued. "It has been guided by 'tip toe diplomacy'—but peace for itself with irreconcilable Republican senators and not peace for all the world. The result has been a tip toe diplomacy at home and abroad."

Later he said: "Mr. Hughes may be sure that a Democratic President will recognize the fact that the league of nations exists, that he will treat it, and the city-four nations who compose it with respect and not discourtesy, and instead of exulting over its failures or wishing for its dissolution in order to save an untidy political conscience, he will do what lawfully may be done to encourage its existence and advance its usefulness."

Coolidge the One Issue. On virtually only one point did Mr. Davis agree with the secretary—that the issue of the campaign is whether Calvin Coolidge is to remain in office.

"I accept that issue," he said, "for I have insisted all along that the purpose of all popular election is to pass judgment on the party in power and that the man placed in office by a party cannot shirk the responsibilities of that party."

At noon at Rochester Mr. Davis praised the Jewish race and again denounced religious and racial prejudice.

HESS FURNACES

No Costly Repairs

The design of the Hess Furnace eliminates all repairs for years. The fire-brick (which neither melt nor break) are the only parts requiring repair.

These are replaced in a few minutes. The grates are replaced by removing the small front grate holder, and the new grates are readily inserted.

There are no flues, and the settling chamber is easily cleaned through a large door at the rear. The Hess furnace and grate is never removed as in other makes, and cost less for repairs, labor and material.

'LIE' G. O. P. REPLY TO BOB'S SLUSH FUND CHARGES

Butler Goes Further—Asks for Funds.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Senator La Follette's charge at Scranton Tuesday night that the Republican national committee is raising a slush fund of $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 brought several speedy replies yesterday.

William M. Butler, chairman of the national committee, branded the charge as "bunk."

W. L. Mellon, a nephew of Andrew Mellon, secretary of the treasury, who was mentioned by La Follette, labeled it "ridiculously absurd" and a "lie."

And C. Bascom Slamp, secretary to President Coolidge, who, according to La Follette, is in charge of the collection in the western field, classified this statement as a "pure fabrication."

Butler Seeks Funds. Incidentally National Chairman Butler took advantage of the opening to appeal for funds, particularly for donations from Pennsylvania, where, according to the Wisconsin senator, the slush fund activities are in evidence.

"He simply has pulled an old trick," said Butler, "one that has been used in every campaign. Generally it has been used in the last week of the campaign—too late for an effective denial. Therefore I have been curious as to what particular emergency has started La Follette to spreading a smoke screen at this time."

"But the reason is plain. The senator himself is raising money, and a considerable amount. It appears that for some reason he is anxious to avoid an inquiry into his own funds and also to prevent us from raising money."

Among other questions concerning his expenses, Butler fired this question at La Follette:

"I should like to inquire what is the total amount he has so far received from Democratic leaders engaged in this conspiracy to throw the election into the house."

He said the campaign managers are

DEMOCRATS DIG UP PANDER CASE TO WORRY SMALL

Text Book Refreshes Cusick Pardon.

The Cusick or Gussac pandering case has bobbed up again to plague Gov. Len Small. It is the subject of a section of a booklet of information for its speakers issued by the Democratic state organization and the governor probably will hear of it frequently during the campaign.

Harry and Alma Cusick, keepers of the Rosmar inn, were convicted of pandering. While their appeal was still pending in the Illinois Supreme court Gov. Small commuted their sentences "to expire at once."

The anti-Small Republicans made considerable of this case during the primary, but the Democratic booklet adds a new chapter to the story by commenting on the fact that only about a month ago Cusick was arrested again on the charge of a slush fund case.

Acts on Franklin. The only possible excuse which Gov. Small had for commutation of the sentence, reads the booklet, "and this he did not offer, was that they might have returned to their ways."

"There is no record that any such promise was made, but if it was it was violated, for the Chicago newspapers of Sept. 7, 1924, showed that after they were set free by Small the Cusses returned to their old method of living."

"On Sept. 6 the Star Oak Inn, a residence similar to the Rosmar Inn, was raided. Thirty-one persons were taken as inmates and the case Harry Gussac, who had enjoyed such exceptional favor from Gov. Small, was arrested as the keeper of the place."

Thinks Small Approves Him. "Evidently Gussac considered that the governor, by commuting his sentence, had placed the stamp of official approval upon his career as the proprietor of the Rosmar Inn, and that he was in duty bound to show the governor that he appreciated his stand by continuing in the same business as that which had won the approval of Small."

Yen Slumps to Lowest; Japan Financiers Uneasy. [Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] HONOLULU, Oct. 2.—Japanese banks today quoted the yen at 24 cents, the lowest quotation on record here. The normal rate is 40 cents.

The yen dropped six points in two days, and this is attributed to trade conditions plus the civil war in China. The bankers predicted that many Hawaiian Japanese will take advantage of the exchange to send their earnings to Japan, withdrawing them again when the rate has become normal, thus tightening financial conditions among the Japanese here.

Among other questions concerning his expenses, Butler fired this question at La Follette:

"I should like to inquire what is the total amount he has so far received from Democratic leaders engaged in this conspiracy to throw the election into the house."

Oakshore Beach

RIPARIAN RIGHTS

North Shore Home Sites adjoining Golf Course on the lake

To those who wish to build their homes in an exceptionally high grade community on the North Shore this offers a number of unusually large sites fronting on the lake.

Some years ago I acquired a strip of rolling land east of Sheridan Road, between Waukegan and Kenosha, facing Lake Michigan, picturesque and beautifully wooded. This is known as Oakshore Beach and includes the Chicago Golf Course, Oakshore Subdivision and other residence property.

The rare natural beauty of Oakshore Beach had always impressed me with its desirability, and with the aid of landscape architects and engineers, a most unique and beautiful home community has been developed.

Large home sites either fronting on the lake or directly overlooking it can be now secured. There are only a limited number of sites and these are being sold with broad paved roads, electric light, water, landscaping, in and paid for.

In addition to the natural beauty of Oakshore Beach, four distinct advantages are offered—riparian rights, large sites, proximity to a real golf course, rigid protective, exclusive restrictions.

The prices are lower than any comparable property between Chicago and Milwaukee. But sites are not sold on the payment plan. Titles guaranteed by Chicago Title and Trust Company.

Without obligating yourself, you may secure a copy of a large and fully descriptive booklet, with local views. Simply mail the coupon below and I will send you your copy promptly.

OLD PARTIES JUST MORGAN'S TOOLS, BOB'S N. J. SNEER

Lays "4 Great Crimes" to "the Interests."

BY ARTHUR EVANS.
Newark, N. J., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Senator La Follette tonight assailed both Republican and Democratic parties as "tools of two aggregations of financial power—J. P. Morgan & Co. and the Standard Oil company."

Before an audience of workers in Laurel Garden he said the only difference between the old parties is that "they have candidates with different names." The real issue in the campaign is to "snare them both" and make a new political alignment, he asserted.

"The Republican party today," said "fighting Bob," is the vestpocket possession of Wall street, a mere chair. The Democratic party long before 1861 was a vestpocket possession of the slave owning, plantation owning aristocracy of the south. Both parties have become the private possession of an economic class and the government itself has fallen into the control of an economic oligarchy."

Lincoln, Jefferson, Madison.

La Follette spoke of Lincoln and Jefferson.

"The war left us," he said, "with two cynical, mocking, arrogant masks of the idealism of Thomas Jefferson on the one hand and Abraham Lincoln on the other. Today the people are rising to repudiate the two cynical masks behind which monopoly, privilege, and economic power seek to hide themselves."

He took up the interlocking directorates as disclosed ten years ago. "What are these special interests that rule America?" he asked. "They are interests that spring from the protective tariff, the privately owned railroads, the banks, and the natural resources of America."

The Four Great Crimes.

"The orgy of greed that followed the war was even more remorseless than the orgy of profiteering during the war. During these years four great crimes were committed against the people. They were:

1. Controlling the credit resources of the country, these banking groups depreciated the price of Liberty bonds and by various devices forced patriotic purchasers to sell them at from 80 to 90 cents on the dollar to the banks that had promised to carry them, which bonds, as soon as the public had been shaken out, speedily rose to par. Honest holders were subjected to losses of millions of dollars.

2. In 1920 the banking groups of Wall street in control of the nation's railways and major industries made war on organized labor. They determined to strip the worker of the small gains that he had made during the war and reduce his wage scale to standard of living before the war days. Four million men were thrown out of employment for nearly a year and the industrial life of America was disorganized or prostrate.

Destroyed Competition.

"I am not content with the control of all the major industries of America, this predatory group of banks and monopolies used its power to still further destroy competition and independent industry by forcing thousands of business men into bankruptcy or under monopoly control."

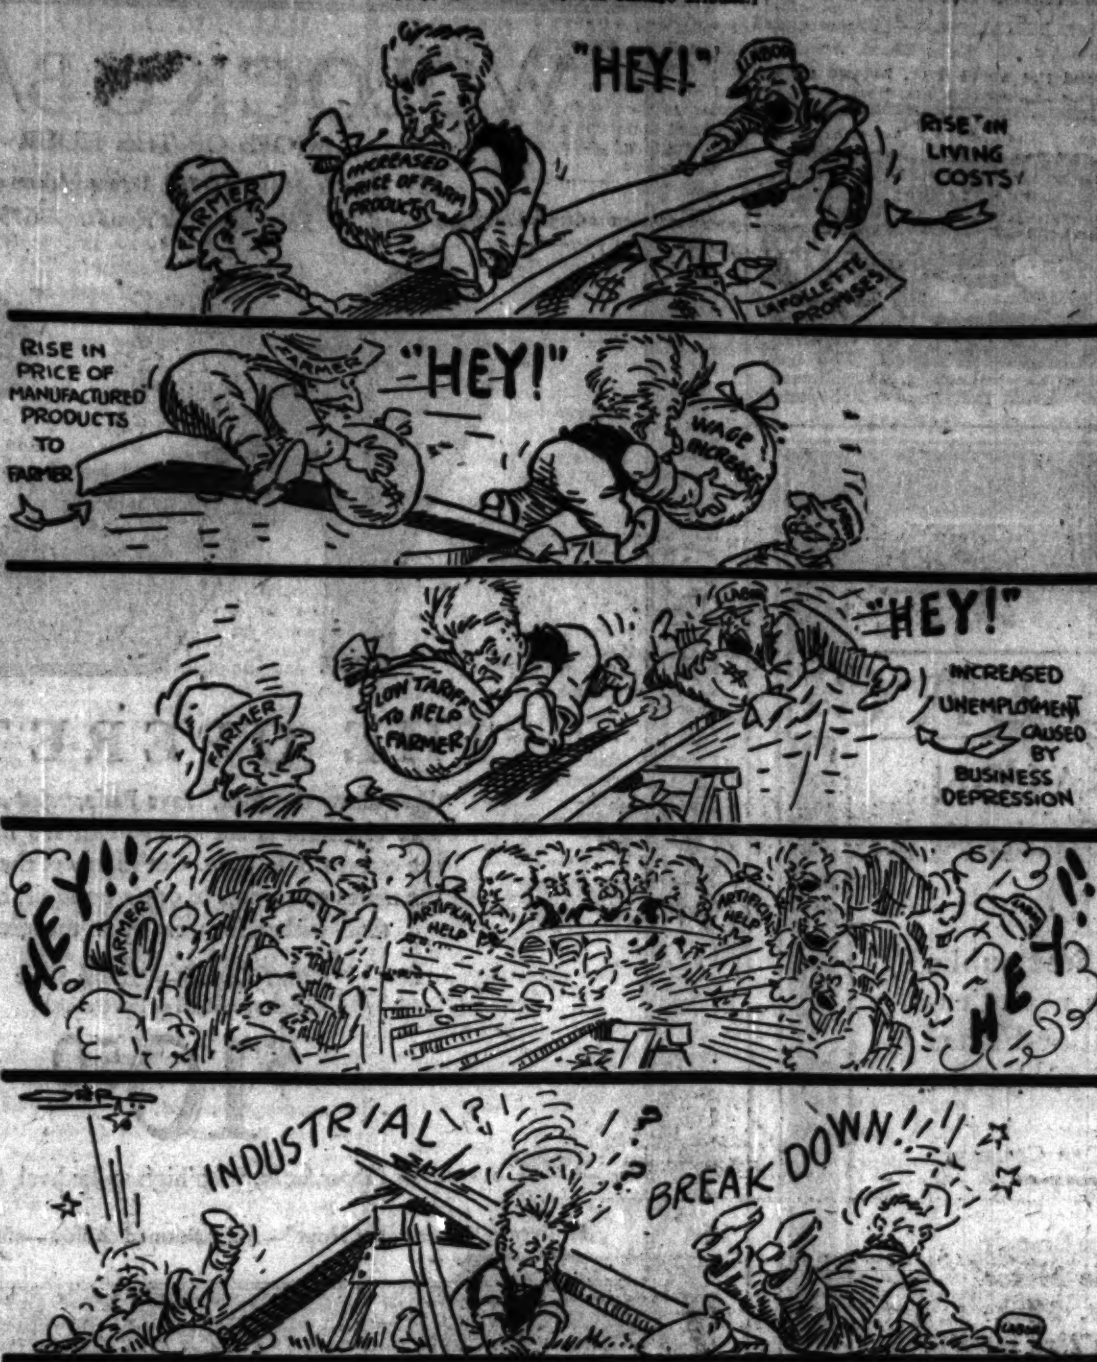

(4) Finally, through a conspiracy of the banking agencies of the country, agriculture was all but destroyed. In the fall of 1920, through the action of the Federal Reserve Board at Washington, local banks were inspired to call in the loans they had made to the farmers and to restrict credit to farmers for carrying their crops. Farmers were compelled to throw their produce on the market.

The Ruin of Farmers.

"By this action, farm produce valued at billions of dollars was forced onto the market. Prices fell like an avalanche. In consequence speculators, commissionmen, millers and

KEEP JAZZ PEDALS OFF CHURCH ORGANS, LUTHERAN DEMANDS

New York, Oct. 8.—Dr. J. P. Ohi of Philadelphia, as chairman of the committee on church music of the United Lutheran Church of America, today memorialized the church at its coming convention in Chicago to "warn organ builders that they must not include the characteristics of a movie theater organ in instruments built for church purposes."

Jazz devices on church organs, the committee's statement said, "tempt the organist, who may himself be a movie organist, and instead of church music the congregation is treated to movie music."

"Is it any wonder," Dr. Ohi asked, "that children lose their reverence when in Sunday school they are taught to sing music reminiscent of the movies and jazz bands?"

packers were then enabled to buy with the credit resources which had been taken from the farmer. Hundreds of banks were ruined, 600,000 farmers were bankrupted.

"Thus the economic oligarchy that controls our government has used its power. Thus privilege has impoverished a people. These are some of the crimes the American people have had to pay because they have lost control of their government."

WAR VETERANS ORGANIZED TO BATTLE ROBISM

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—A giant war veterans' organization designed to combat La Follette and being about the defeat of La Follette and Wheeler at the polls was announced here tonight by Col. C. B. Robbins, former Iowa state commander of the American Legion. It is to be known as the Republican Service League and is at work in forty-six states, according to the announcement.

Col. Hanford MacNider, of Mason City, former national commander of the Legion, is national chairman, and Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Republican nominee for governor of New York, is chairman of the advisory board.

The league was organized at an informal meeting of world war commanders immediately after the Republican convention at Cleveland, according to Col. Robbins. It now has 100,000 members in Iowa, he declared.

A woman's auxiliary also has been created in the forty-six states in which the league is organized. Mrs. T. F. Hollowell of Fort Madison has been named Iowa state chairman. Democratic veterans have been asked to form a similar league and Col. Robbins believes they will.

According to Col. Robbins, the league has no connection with the American Legion.

SHENANDOAH RIDES AT MAST AT FORT WORTH

Does First Lap 7 Hours Ahead of Schedule.

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 8.—The navy's giant dirigible Shenandoah, on its epochal 3,000 mile coast to coast flight, arrived here tonight at 7:35 o'clock, seven hours ahead of schedule, and was fast at the mooring mast two hours and thirty minutes later.

A brisk south wind hampered the mooring mast attacks in bringing the big ship to rest. Each time it was brought down close to the mast the wind would get under it and it would ascend again.

The titan of the air, completing its first 1,400 mile lap, enters the city limits amid a welcoming din of whistles and bells more than an hour after dusk, and a bright moon assisted the powerful mooring mast beams in guiding the Shenandoah to its haven.

Thousands See Arrival

Thousands of persons crowded the streets and housetops as the huge cigar-shaped craft sailed over the city at a speed of about fifty-five miles an hour. The dirigible will remain here all night, refilling with helium and food for the trip to the Pacific coast and back to Fort Worth. It will leave here about 9 o'clock tomorrow morning (Thursday) for El Paso.

"Everything was fine," declared Commander Zachary Lansdowne. "The Shenandoah is a wonderful ship. We had no trouble at all in reaching here and do not expect any on the rest of the trip. I'm sure we'll get to our destination without mishap."

Rear Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics, who is aboard the Shenandoah, was well pleased with the way the dirigible accomplished the first leg of the trip. "The Shenandoah is doing everything we expected. We have had smooth sailing and expect to conclude our journey 'ship shape,'" he declared.

Masts in Perfect Shape

Lieut. C. E. Rosendahl, navigator of the ship, came here in advance of the dirigible to inspect the mooring mast, which has never before been used.

All during the day hundreds of thousands of southern folk gazed aloft at the silvery monster as it made its way majestically over South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and the northern edge of Louisiana into Texas.

FORMER CHINESE PIRATE SHOCKED BY OUR BANDITS

In the opinion of Kestimislav D. Isla, who says he knows from his own experience what an outlaw and river rat on the wharves of Hongkong, China, the "Chinese river pirate is a piker."

Isla, told his story yesterday at the Moody Bible Institute, where he is now a student, having been converted in Hongkong through the influence of a former Moody student in charge of a mission there.

"Bandits in America shoot and kill for nothing. Chinese bandits kill for revenge or jealousy, but never for wanton lust," said Isla. "American gunmen would shudder with horror and turn green with envy. The Chinese rob for pennies and kill only when in a corner. American bandits rob for millions and kill for the love of it." Isla, who is really a Filipino, is going to London when he graduates and become a missionary.

AL SMITH VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM; CANCELS TOUR

Boston, Mass., Oct. 8.—The New England campaign of Gov. Al Smith of New York, which has taken him to New Hampshire and Massachusetts in support of the national and state candidates of the Democratic party, was ended here today. An attack of rheumatism forced him to cancel his engagements to speak in Rhode Island and Connecticut.

The governor is in bed at a hotel here tonight, under the care of a physician, who said that rest and quiet would restore him to health in time to permit him to keep speaking appointments in New Jersey Friday.

The attack, which was induced by a cold contracted during a ride in the rain between a dinner and a meeting here last night, is a recurrence of one he suffered two years ago.

COOLIDGE TRIMS BOB'S NEW YORK CITY POLL LEAD

New York, Oct. 8.—(Special.)—President Coolidge jumped ahead of Senator La Follette in the New York News poll of New York City today and cut down the Wisconsin radical's lead in all the boroughs except Manhattan.

The President continued his gain in the street voting in Newark, N. J., and holds a safe lead over La Follette and John W. Davis.

Out of 26,133 votes cast in New York La Follette has 7,875, Coolidge 7,238, and Davis 4,725.

The standing of the candidates in the News poll by percentages is:

La Follette.....29 Davis.....24
Coolidge.....26
A total vote of 1,277,495 was polled in the presidential election in New York City in 1920. On this basis the standing of the candidates would be, according to the percentages above:

La Follette.....285,190 Davis.....261,260

This coat can also be had in other shades of squirrel.

FOOD STICKS IN STOMACH

Take Baalmann's Gas-Tablets
"Everything I eat seems to stick right in my stomach," is the complaint of many persons who are extremely nervous, sensitive or inclined to worry. Such people do not know that they are suffering from nervous dyspepsia in its chronic form, brought on by mental agitation or nervous strain.
This condition, which may take years to fully develop, is the source of much distress. Large quantities of gas are created in the stomach and bowels, causing excessive bloating, pressure against the heart, accompanied by pain or palpitation, shortness of breath, dizziness, hysteria, restless sleep, faintness, or a tense, nervous feeling.
Baalmann's Gas-Tablets not only give prompt relief from all discomfort arising from gas, but they help to correct the nervous condition responsible for the trouble. Try them at once and be convinced. Price $1.00 per box. Baalmann's Gas-Tablets are for sale in Chicago by Buck & Barnes, Drug Store and other good druggists. J. Baalmann, M.D., San Francisco.

The Greatest Money-Making Opportunity Chicago's Rapid Growth Has Ever Offered

Why Chicago Real Estate is the Best Investment in the World

Chicago is the key to commercial America—strategically located in the geographical center of the greatest food-producing valley in the world! It is already first in a score of fields and is adding new laurels every day. The Encyclopedia Britannica says Chicago "has enjoyed a continuous 'boom' no other American city has ever known." [Vol. 6, Page 124]; that its growth has been "remarkable even for American cities."

From 100 to 3,000,000 population in less than a hundred years—an average yearly increase of 30,000! And during the past ten years Chicago has added a city the size of Decatur, or 50,000 each year! These people must have homes. And population always follows the avenues of good transportation. You can follow the "L" to fortune at Niles Center.

"L" Service Will Start Next Spring Then Watch Niles Center Values Jump!

You will be astounded at the developments already under way at Niles Center—rapid progress is being made on the "L" extension—soon the crowds will come. Those who buy here now are bound to see values double again and again. The extension of the Douglas Park "L" built up Cicero overnight. Developments here will surpass even Cicero's remarkable history, for the trend of population is northward to regions within easy access of the lake.

ARE you letting the months and years slip by without owning some Chicago real estate—the best and safest investment you could possibly make? Do you realize that Chicago holds the world's record for rapid and consistent growth? That it has actually doubled in population during the last 26 years—that it will be a metropolis of 10,000,000 in a comparatively short time—that property within the city limits alone increased in value by $13,500,000 the past year?

If you have been here ten years, or even five, you will have seen many a lost opportunity to make big returns on Chicago apartment and business sites—property that seemed to promise little then, but has since proven its real worth. Take Wilson Avenue—eighteen years ago it was a quiet residence street with sites going begging at $50 a front foot. The same property now brings $10,000 and up per front foot! It has been the same at all "L" terminals—values have doubled over and over again.

And now the North Side's last "L" terminal is being built—at Niles Center. Here real estate history will inevitably repeat itself—here fortunes will be made over night. Trains will be running in a few months—then people will come to this new Klondike by the thousands. But shrewd investors are buying now before the real boom begins. Prices are low now. Those with foresight will get in on the ground floor at once and let the developments of the next few years bring them handsome returns. Study a map of Chicago and you will see why this region should have a population of at least 200,000 in a few short years.

Now is the time to act! We hold the cream of Niles Center property. You don't have to be rich to own property here—our special purchase plan enables you to buy choice locations on terms as low as 50c a day! Send the coupon for complete information at once—you incur no obligation whatever.

You Can Make a Fortune in Real Estate—I Will Help You

What makes land valuable? Population! Chicago's millions of workers are daily increasing Chicago's land values. Yet only a few benefit from these increases, less than five per cent—those who own the land and let the city's rapid growth make money for them.

I will show you how to add to your income by getting started in real estate operations. Anyone can do it. You don't need a great deal of capital—a small payment down will reserve an apartment or business site at Niles Center—then monthly payments as low even as fifty cents a day. Long before your site is paid for you should be able to turn it over at a handsome profit. By this method you need only a fraction of the price of the lot to "swing" the deal. COOLIDGE TELLS HOW TO USE AND NOT ABUSE RADIO

Delivers "Sermon" to 600 Representatives.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The Radio—How to Use It and Not Abuse It, was the subject of a twelve minute sermon President Coolidge preached to 600 representatives of the radio industry at the White House last night. The president's first to fifth. Inclusive were these sentences:

NO MONOPOLY.—The administration insists that no monopoly should be allowed to arise, and that to prevent it the control of the channels through the ether should remain as much in the hands of the government, and therefore of the people, as the control of navigation upon our waters.

PERILS.—Liberty is not license, and in this new instrument there is opportunity for greater license even than in the use of print, for radio reaches directly to the children.

Authority Required.—Here is an industry which must have its traffic rules provided and enforced by some central authority. During this period of intensive development the administration has had the fine cooperation of the industry itself in the creation and maintenance of these rules.

THE BIG LIE.—Development of this new advance in civilization is a fresh evidence that the genius for progress has not left the American people, and that our citizens are to be relied upon to conduct their own business in a way best calculated to promote the public welfare.

THE GOAL.—The goal we desire to reach is an opportunity for every one to have access to radio communication without limitation. To secure this, sales and regulations are necessary. Otherwise there would be such confusion that there would be any certainty of service.

Peril of Slender.—His keynote was no government control of radio programs, for that, he declared, would not be consistent with American institutions.

"Freedom in development," he said, "will secure wider use of the art and more perfection in its conduct."

But there was peril of the transmission of malice and slander in using this new medium—a double industry "because those wronged can have no opportunity of reply."

Diffusion of corrupting literature was another possible peril; another double peril, because while parents can exclude corrupt printed matter from the home the radio could carry it right into the ears of the children.

Such menaces, the President thought, made it vital that the radio be properly safeguarded.

Need of Orderly Process.—Hence:

"What is required to meet this situation is an orderly process by which the opportunity for the use of radio communication can be kept open to the highest possible degree."

To attain the process meant, the President was confident, not inconstant governmental meddling, as has happened in some foreign countries, but a national central authority providing and enforcing traffic rules and fundamental rights but not taking over actual control of programs.

The day's proceedings of the conference dealt with the use of high power. An advisory committee entrusted with this question agreed to recommend that the use of high power be permitted under experimental licenses.

TODAY'S RADIO PROGRAMS

(Thursday, Oct. 9.)

(Central standard time throughout.)

Every W-G-N listener will sit on the jury tonight which is to decide what city in Illinois has the best broadcasting talent. For tonight the broadcast contest in the Illinois Products Exposition opens in the American Exposition palace, 444 Lake Shore drive, to continue every evening until Saturday, Oct. 12.

Fifteen towns have already entered the contest, with more expected before the week is over. The winner, who is to receive a Brunswick radio valued at $450, will be decided by the number of applause cards and letters received from towns not competing. Each city will be given ten minutes on each of two evenings for participation, with an additional two minutes on the second appearance for an address by the commercial organization which is sponsoring the act.

Debuter and Eakin will be represented tonight at 8:30 and Elgin at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Harriet Tyler Killek, harpist, and Mrs. Marjorie Landon Kury, soprano, will represent Decatur. The participants from Pekin and Elgin will be announced by radio.

The schedule for this week and next follows:

Friday, Oct. 10—8:30 p. m.—Pekin and Decatur.

NORTH SHORE LINE ORDERED OFF 'L' TRACKS

Electric Line Expected to Ask Injunction.

The council local transportation committee ordered the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Electric line off the elevated structures not later than noon on Oct. 12. And from its own engineers the committee demanded a long delayed report on "how, when, and where subways can best be built."

Without a dissenting vote the committee rejected the offer and directed Corporation Counsel F. X. Busch to take such steps as will bring the dispute into the courts.

Injunction May Be Sought.
Accordingly, Mr. Busch said last night, notice will be served on the electric line's officials today that unless operation of their trains within the city limits is halted before Monday noon he will call upon Chief of Police Collins and Commissioner of Public Works A. A. Sprague to block their trains at the Howard street limits.

It is anticipated that the electric line will immediately seek an injunction.

A year ago, when he denounced the North Shore line for failure to secure a franchise and scored his colleagues for hesitating to oust the line from the city, Ald. Arthur Albert (34d), sponsor of yesterday's action, was threatened with expulsion from the city council.

Row Over Subways.
The committee overruled the demand of Ald. Wiley Mills (37th) that an engineer's report on the necessity and practicability of subways which he asked several months ago should be submitted to the council before consideration of how, when and where the tubes may be built is undertaken.

"The council ordered the transportation committee to tell it how and when subways could be built last February," declared Ald. Joseph O. Kostner (34d), who, with Ald. E. I. Frankhauser (38th), offered the resolution.

"And the report should and must be given the council on Oct. 12, absolutely independent of any schemes to be offered by Mayor Dever or proposals from Samuel Insull."

"Mayors are not held responsible for transportation in Chicago," continued Ald. Kostner. "A majority of the people still look to their aldermen to secure what is needed."

"We should submit a subway proposal to the people in the February election. It is conceded that if the subways are built by the city, tenants for them will easily be found."

372,257 Men, 196,612 Women Register to Vote
Official figures compiled yesterday by the election commission gave the total of those who registered in Chicago last Saturday as 568,869. Of these 372,257 were men and 196,612 were women. The second registration day is Oct. 14.

FAMED SURGEONS OF AUSTRALIA LECTURE HERE
Two young and distinguished surgeons came to Chicago yesterday from Sydney, Australia. They are Dr. M. D. Royle, 35 years old, honorary orthopedic surgeon to the Lewisham hospital and Dr. John L. Hunter, 27 years old, Challa professor of anatomy, University of Sydney and honorary consulting neurologist to the Lewisham hospital.

They made public last spring a surgical remedy expected to cure forms of spastic paralysis originating in an affection of the sympathetic nerve. The new idea consists in severing the sympathetic nerve connections involved.

They came to Chicago as guests of the American College of Surgeons, 49 East Erie street. With them is Mrs. Hunter. They will hold clinics at the college and at various hospitals throughout their stay here, until Oct. 14. Then they will go to New York City, where they will deliver the John B. Murphy oration on surgery before the presidential meeting of the Clinical Congress of America, Monday evening, Oct. 20.

The surgeons are making their debut in the United States at the invitation of Dr. Franklin H. Martin, director general of the American College of Surgeons, and Dr. W. J. Mayo, Rochester, Minn.

Dr. Martin headed the reception committee that greeted the Australians on their arrival here. With him were Dr. A. J. Cochran, president of the college; Dr. Allan Craig, and Dr. John Porter.

John Portkovic, owner of a restaurant at 1828 West 14th street, was robbed of $1,500 yesterday for three hundred men, but he hit a finger off a bandit during the fight.

W. J. LINCOLN, SLAYER OF TWO, CALLED INSANE

Police Chief, 2 Doctors
Testify at Trial.

BY JAMES DOHERTY.
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 8. (Special.)—Four witnesses testified today, each to his own opinion that Warren J. Lincoln is insane.

Judge John K. Knehall would not permit testimony tending to the belief that insanity was hereditary in Warren J. Lincoln's family.

Chief of Police Frank Nichols of Aurora, who conducted the various investigations, first into the supposed murder of Lincoln, then into his story of how he had been kidnapped by his wife and a gang of dope dealers and finally into the death of Lina Shoup Lincoln and Byron Shoup, related the various confessions made by Lincoln and of his leading police to the cement block that contained the heads of his victims.

Chief Thinks Him Insane.
N. J. Aldrich, counsel for Lincoln, then asked the chief: "Have you an opinion as to the sanity of the defendant, Warren J. Lincoln?"

"Yes, in my opinion he is insane," Chief Nichols responded.

Chief Nichols said Lincoln made three different confessions to him.

Lincoln's final confession, as told by the chief, was that he had surprised Lina and Byron and saw what, in his opinion, justified killing both. Lincoln told the chief he then had burned the bodies.

Michels said he did not believe this, that he took Lincoln out to the home and greenhouse on the Indian trail just outside of Aurora and reexamined the slaying several times a night for four or five successive nights. Each time he became more convinced that Lincoln was not telling the truth, he testified. He believes, however, Lincoln really was trying to remember what he had done with the bodies.

Finally, Lincoln remembered how he had disposed of the heads.

Story of Family Barred.
Ed Lincoln, brother of the man on trial, started to tell of insanity in the family, but was stopped by the state's objections, which were sustained.

Dr. F. C. Van Hook of Mount Pleasant said Warren Lincoln formerly had been postmaster there. Dr. Van Hook had been his doctor. The physician was not permitted to tell the nature of his patient's ailment. Dr. Van Hook said he had not seen Lincoln for five years after that, until today, when he made an examination.

Describing Lincoln's present condition as paranoid, Dr. Van Hook said Lincoln has a delusion that his wife, Byron, and others are following him at night and persecuting him. On cross-examination by State's Attorney Abbott of Kane county, Dr. Van Hook said that it was Lincoln's belief that he was a man of lies then Lincoln was not insane.

Explains Slayer's Delusions.
Dr. Sidney Wilgus, who has a sanitarium at Rockford, Ill., said he had been examining Lincoln since Saturday, and Lincoln's mental insufficiency led him to believe Mrs. Lincoln was untrue to him. That, Dr. Wilgus said, he believed was the explanation of Lincoln's delusions. Dr. Wilgus gave as his opinion that Lincoln is insane.

Dr. Wilgus believed Lincoln could understand the nature of the proceedings against him. Lincoln will take the witness stand, perhaps tomorrow.

quiet, serious house. Even the young bloods of the Tory party and the fighting men of Labor seemed to feel that the issue being debated was a serious one and they refrained from baiting each other.

Before the debate opened Mr. MacDonald made a personal explanation, apologizing for unintentionally misleading the house a few days ago by a careless choice of words which he gave the impression that he knew nothing of the Campbell case until a certain date. What he meant to say was that he took no official cognizance of the case.

Home Tells Tory View.
The debate was opened by Sir Robert Horne, former chancellor of the exchequer, in a carefully reasoned, good natured exposition of the Tory thesis that the Labor government had brought the administration of the law into contempt by allowing party politics to govern. Sir Robert said that he did not care, nor did the party, whether the house passed a direct vote of censure or accepted the Liberal amendment for an inquiry.

The first demonstration was when Sir Patrick, the accused attorney general, arose to reply. The Laborites cheered for several minutes before he was able to start.

Sir Patrick asserted that the Campbell article in question had been brought to his attention by the director of public prosecutions. He decided that it was prima facie evidence and he directed prosecution. Some time later a member of the Labor party told him that he had gotten the wrong man, Campbell having an excellent army record, being seriously wounded and decorated for bravery. He investigated and decided that on the grounds of public policy the prosecution was unwise and he dropped it.

MacDonald Defends Action.

Mr. MacDonald's speech was one of the finest efforts of the evening. He defended the principle of interference with legal process in addition cases on the ground of public policy and he declared he was ready to stand by the decision of the house.

"We are willing to carry on and try to complete the work which we have begun and which we think has been good, but to do so we must have a measure of the confidence of the house. If you deny us that we must go. We are in your hands."

Former Premier Asquith tried to induce the house to take a light view of the matter, jesting about past inquiries, some of which had been called by differences between himself and his present colleagues, Mr. Lloyd George. He indicated the Liberal desire to climb down, by saying that he was not wedded to an investigation by a select committee, but he would accept any other form of investigation which the government offered.

125,000 RAIL CLERKS PETITION FOR PAY BOOST

Officials of the Brotherhood of Clerks, Freight Handlers, and Station Employees filed with the United States railroad labor board yesterday a demand for a wage increase ranging from 4 cents to 7 and 8 cents an hour for members of the union.

The demand will affect 125,000 men and women employed in various clerical lines on forty-five Class 1 railroads. The railroads will oppose the increase on the ground that the clerks are now as well paid as those outside the transportation industry.

The union officials contend that wages of clerks haven't kept pace with the pay of other employees of the railroads. They also dispute the contention that railroad clerks' pay is on a par with that of clerks in other industries.

The union spokesmen say the average pay of clerks involved in the controversy is 49 cents an hour. The union officials are asking that the pay rates be set back at the old 1920 scale before it was cut a few times by the railroad labor board.

"Railroad profits now total a million a year," said E. H. Pitts Gerald, head of the rail clerks' organization, at the opening hearing.

The union president argued that in view of the railroad prosperity, the railroad labor board should make good the implied promise to reconsider the justice of wages set in previous decisions. He had at hand a ream of statistics and government figures to show wages of other wage earners were close to or above the 1920 level.

Two Accused of Helping
Girls to Go Astray

James McKinnis and Joseph Breton, 2001 West Madison street, were arrested yesterday, charged with contributing to the delinquency of two young girls, Miss Mae Glasier, 16, 5544 South Hamilton avenue, and Mrs. Violet Breton, 16, the wife of one of the men. Detective Sergeant J. J. Zimmerman and John Mackey said that they found the two girls and Breton occupying the same room.

U. S. CLOSES ITS CASE IN DEATH OF GRONKHITE

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 8.—The government rested its case at 9 o'clock this afternoon in the trial of Roland R. Fother in federal court here for the murder of Maj. Alexander F. Conkhite.

The last witness heard was J. T. Lyle, Tacoma attorney and former president of the chamber of commerce. His testimony was heard in an effort to determine whether Camp Lewis, where Maj. Conkhite was shot, was under federal jurisdiction on Oct. 25, 1918, the date of the shooting.

Following the announcement of James W. Osborne, assistant to the United States attorney general, that the government had completed its case, Maurice A. Langhorne, for the defense, moved for dismissal and also to strike several of Fother's alleged confessions from the record.

Argument for these motions will be made at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach trouble.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

FREES WOMAN SPEEDER; ORDERS BOND INQUIRY

Judge McKinley Acts on Case of Ollie Clark.

Sixteen days of scrubbing cell floors and eating jail food at the Bridewell was regarded yesterday by Judge Michael McKinley as sufficient punishment for a woman who, after taking several drinks, speeds her automobile.

So Miss Ollie Clark (Ollie Clark is her stage name) of the Grant hotel was freed on a writ of habeas corpus, thus avoiding a four month more punishment in lieu of a fine of $300.

The case is not ended, however, for the judge ordered before him tomorrow a motion at the East Chicago avenue police station on charges that she introduced Miss Collins to a bondsman who charged $150 for a small bond on which she was freed pending hearing of her case before Municipal Judge Philip Flanagan, who sent her to the Bridewell.

HANDS OF DEATH

The hands of the clock indicate the number of deaths by auto, guns, and moonshine in Cook county since Jan. 1.

State's Attorney Crowe and Chief Justice Jacob Hopkins of the Criminal court will try an experiment in speedy justice for murderers when tomorrow Lawrence Washington, confessed slayer of Nuncio Mascolino, Evanston confederate, is placed on trial.

Washington was arrested Monday with George Foster, a companion gunman with whom he committed more than fifty robberies. On Tuesday Washington was indicted for murder. Foster was indicted for robbery. Yesterday the two bandits were arraigned before Judge Hopkins.

NEGRO SLAYER PLEADS GUILTY; TRIAL ON FRIDAY

State's Attorney Crowe and Chief Justice Jacob Hopkins of the Criminal court will try an experiment in speedy justice for murderers when tomorrow Lawrence Washington, confessed slayer of Nuncio Mascolino, Evanston confederate, is placed on trial.

Washington was arrested Monday with George Foster, a companion gunman with whom he committed more than fifty robberies. On Tuesday Washington was indicted for murder. Foster was indicted for robbery. Yesterday the two bandits were arraigned before Judge Hopkins.

"What are your pleas?" the court asked.

Both Fled Guilty.

"Guilty," both answered.

"We have a confession from Washington detailing the killing of Mascolino, your honor," Assistant State's Attorney Louis P. O'Connell said. "State's Attorney Crowe directed me in view of the possible plea of guilty, to have that case tried at once."

"Have you two men lawyers?" inquired the court.

"They shook their heads in the negative."

"Do you want the court to appoint lawyers for you or do you wish to hire one yourself?"

"It don't make no difference. I'm guilty and don't deny it. I killed that man and am ready for whatever the judge says. I don't care if I get a lawyer or not," Washington answered.

"You must have an Attorney and I will appoint Attorney M. H. Higgins to defend you," replied the judge.

Trial Set for Tomorrow.

"Your case will be set for Friday, when the plea for guilty will be heard."

If the judge's plan is carried out it will be the speediest bringing to trial of a murder case on record in the courts here. Other cases noted for speedy execution were those of Lucius Dolton and Henry Wilson, who were hanged two months after killing a policeman, and that of Leopold and Loeb, who were in Joliet four months after killing Robert Frank.

Harrin Dry Raids Start Again; Troops on Watch

Herrin, Ill., Oct. 8.—[Special.]—The assumption of dry raiding by S. The CHENEY

THE MASTER PHONOGRAPH

The most perfect music reproducing instrument made

WOULD you discover in your favorite records beauties of which you have never dreamed? Would you have the finest music, the most perfect reproductions in your home? Then hear the records you know and love on this marvelous new Cheney and be convinced.

Its music is like magic—like lifting a veil that had heretofore obscured their real beauty. Double resonance, a new triumph of acoustical development, enables The Melbourne to transcend everything you have heard before. Tones are richer, fuller and more pure—and above all, needle scratch is practically eliminated. Only The Cheney has double resonance—its acoustic system is an exclusive feature.

The CHENEY costs no more than the ordinary phonograph—$100 upwards

THE MELBOURNE a superb double resonance model in the new wall cabinet type

With all the grace of the Melbourne, this Cheney is equally pleasing to the eye and a really beautiful instrument. Finished in dark mahogany, gold plated metal, or in any of the new colors.

CANADIAN COURT RIPS VEIL FROM U.S. BOOTLEGGERS

Winnipeg Lawyer and Aids
Try to Explain.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 8. (Special.)—Max Jerome Phaff, whose disclosures of rum running in his piracy trial at Brest are causing such a sensation, was brought into the piracy trial of Capt. Sam Ford of the Luitzen this afternoon when the evidence was completed.

Phaff, according to Allick Adelman, was a supercargo on the Luitzen on the trip previous to that in which Capt. Ford was alleged to have committed his act of piracy. He had handled the halves of the dollar bills that had been used as vouchers for liquor, and that was the only occasion on which this system had been used. The other halves of the bills had been given to a Greek named Brown of New Haven, Conn., who was the purchaser of the cargo.

Adelman denied that he had ever had any business dealing with Frank Hoffman who had yesterday said that he got the signed half bills from Adelman in the Pennsylvania hotel, New York, which he was to present to the ship for so many cases of liquor. Adelman said this afternoon that he had never given orders to Phaff, except by means of the bills, nor had he given Ford any written orders.

Winnipeg Lawyer's Job.
When counsel for the defense produced a written order addressed to Ford for the delivery of liquor, and a reproduction in a New York newspaper of an order from Adelman to Phaff to deliver 100 cases to a certain Teddy Black, witness, however, admitted that these were genuine, adding that Phaff and Ford also did a little whiskey business in New York and the orders referred to those city transactions and not with ships in rum row.

The two supercargoes, J. M. Isaacs, a Winnipeg lawyer, and Jack Morris, Hoffman said, were at liberty and mingled freely with Capt. Ford and the officers of the ship as the cargo was being sold, and even assisted during rush business in helping to move it.

Meyer Rosenthal Chief.
Walter Richards of New York, who described himself as a merchant broker, but, despite his plea, "You must remember I have to go back to the states," was subsequently forced to admit that he was a bootlegger, told the court that when he went to the Luitzen, Meyer Rosenthal was on board. Rosenthal was introduced to him as the president of the Sunrise Steamship company, which owned the boat. He negotiated with the captain and the two supercargoes for the purchase of the cargo, but when he returned in a few days after a storm found small boats had been taking it away. He negotiated for the rest and sold it over the side, the proceeds being handed him by the captain.

Lawyer Isaacs and Morris effusively denied they had anything to do with selling the booze.

Norman Adelman swore that Rosenthal left the Sunrise Steamship company in August, 1935 (the piracy was alleged to have been in October), as there was a disagreement, although he had an interest in the later shipment from St. John's, which Ford was alleged to have seized.

It transpired that the cargo of the Luitzen was insured at Lloyd's for $25,724 and with the Merchants' Marine association for $5,576, but neither of the claims had yet been paid, pending further investigation by Lloyd's. Although Prosecutor Calder said he would call to Hamilton, Bermuda, to get Attorney Smith to contradict Hoffman's statements and also try to get First Mate Tucker out, asserting that he would bring the whole of the population of Bermuda up to Montreal, if necessary, to get to the bottom of the case, the evidence on both sides was closed this afternoon. Tomorrow there will be addresses to the jury, and possibly a verdict early in the afternoon.

No Corns this new way

UNTIL modern science found a safe way, paring was the only way to end corns, and paring a corn yourself is dangerous. Then a noted scientist discovered Blue-jay. Now a world-famed laboratory makes it. It stops all pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Millions use it—different from any other corn remedy. The guardian of your teeth

It keeps them sound and beautiful

THIS is the brush to use regularly, because it is constructed to reach all parts of all the teeth and keep them clean. It brushes the inside and in between surfaces just as well as it does the outside surfaces, without extra effort on your part.

Every advance in tooth brush construction was originated by the Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush. It has eight features which have made it the "world's standard tooth brush."

- 1 The large end tuft, which reaches and cleans the backs of the back teeth and the inside surfaces of all teeth—originated by the Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush.
- 2 Saw-tooth bristles, scientifically formed and spaced, are set in a curve to fit the "profile" of the teeth—originated by the Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush.
- 3 The curved handle, with the tapered and beveled head, which enables the Pro-phy-lac-tic to get behind the teeth and to clean all teeth—originated by the Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush.
- 4 Dependable markings on each brush, so you may rely absolutely on getting hard, medium or soft bristles—originated by the Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush.

- 5 The use of a symbol to mark each brush so that every individual may know his own Pro-phy-lac-tic—originated by the Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush.
- 6 The hole in the handle and the hook to hang the brush upon—originated by the Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush.
- 7 The sanitary yellow box which brings your tooth brush to you clean, untouched by any hands since it left the sanitary Pro-phy-lac-tic factory—originated by the Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush.
- 8 Made in America by Americans—originated by the Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush. You can now get a Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush, the world's standard, in any civilized community on earth.

The three sizes are priced in the United States: Pro-phy-lac-tic Adult, 50c; Pro-phy-lac-tic Small, 40c; Pro-phy-lac-tic Baby, 25c. Hard, medium or soft bristles. Pro-phy-lac-tic Brush Co., Florence, Massachusetts, U. S. A.

WAUKEGAN MAN FIGHTS CHARGE BY U.S. IN LONDON

Washington Out to "Get Him," De Kay Says.

By JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)
(Copyright 1924, By The Chicago Tribune.)
LONDON, Oct. 8.—That the United States government trumped up charges of fraud to take him to the United States to prosecute him for an exorbitant political charge of sedition was the defense put up in the Bow street police court today by John Wesley De Kay, millionaire pacifist, socialist, author, and former Waukegan, Ill., editor. He is fighting extradition here on a formal charge of "sedition" in the crime of fraud by banker or officer of a company.

Mr. De Kay created a sensation when he said he had financed the second Socialist international at Rome in 1919 at the request of Arthur Henderson, the present home secretary of Great Britain, "and that he had as his guests" Ramsey MacDonald, present prime minister of Great Britain; J. H. Thomas, colonial secretary; Charles F. Dixon, Mrs. Philip Snowden, and other prominent internationalists.

Says U. S. Warned Him.
At that time, he said, United States agents called on him and warned him that by supporting this international he was committing a crime punishable by imprisonment in the United States. His small compact figure, his heavy face, with rimmed glasses, which he constantly kept putting on and taking off as he glanced through the numerous files of documents which he had with him, and his gray hair all made him easily the dominating personality in the tiny poorly attended court where in English fashion the testimony was slowly and methodically presented as at a committee meeting rather than as before a solemn court.

His youthful second wife and attractive dark complexioned daughter, who sat on the only bench for visitors, frequently smiled encouragement to him. Mr. De Kay testified that the United States government had openly threatened to "get him" for sedition "by hook or crook." He produced a telegram which he had sent the late President Harding offering to go to the

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made

Here's an easy way to cure it, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this home-made cough syrup. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home. Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ cups of Pinex, then add 1½ cups of sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. It tastes good, never spoils and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is very wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy cures a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It goes to the source through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, breaks the membrane, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "24 hours cure of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. JULIAN B. ARNOLD, WRITER, TO TALK TO MEDILLIANS

Julian B. Arnold, traveler, writer, and assistant on Stanley's African expedition, will lecture on "Geography and the Newspaper Man" tonight before the Medill School of Journalism, 81 West Lake street. The talk will start at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Arnold has a personal acquaintance in all parts of the world and knows countries and peoples well. He has traveled in twenty different countries and has known JULIAN B. ARNOLD, the complete evacuation of Egypt was the receipt of a telegram from Australia which constituted almost an ultimatum. Prime Minister Bruce of Australia cabled the British government denying its right to decide on the evacuation of Egypt without the consent of the Pacific dominions. He reminded Mr. MacDonald that the dominion troops had saved Egypt for the empire during the war and ensured the safety of imperial communications. Surrender of the control of Egypt to independent natives, Mr. Bruce declared, would set back Australia 100 years and compel her to reconsider the whole question of imperial adherence.

The lecture will be open to the public.

Drafts for $5,000.

In the afternoon Sir Henry Maddock appeared for the state and elicited the information that Mr. De Kay in 1911 had cashed drafts for $5,000 with Mr. Metcalf, the president of a defunct bank, when both knew they had no money in Mexican banks to meet them. "But the drafts were perfectly good," Mr. De Kay insisted, "as we had liquid assets in the bank which were attachable."

AUSTRALIA ENDS BRITISH PLAN TO EVACUATE EGYPT

(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)

LONDON, Oct. 8.—It is learned that one of the main factors which induced Prime Minister MacDonald to adopt his stiff attitude in the face of the demands of Premier Faghioui Pasha for the complete evacuation of Egypt was the receipt of a telegram from Australia which constituted almost an ultimatum.

Prime Minister Bruce of Australia cabled the British government denying its right to decide on the evacuation of Egypt without the consent of the Pacific dominions. He reminded Mr. MacDonald that the dominion troops had saved Egypt for the empire during the war and ensured the safety of imperial communications. Surrender of the control of Egypt to independent natives, Mr. Bruce declared, would set back Australia 100 years and compel her to reconsider the whole question of imperial adherence.

FOUR SHOT FROM AMBUSH IN MINE WAR RENEWAL

(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)

Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 8.—Lee J. Sandridge, general manager and vice president of the Rock Island Coal company and well known in Democratic political circles, and three of his assistants were brought to an Elkins hospital this afternoon from Mariden, where they were shot early today by persons concealed in underbrush.

They were en route to reopen the Mariden mine on a nonunion basis when the shooting occurred.

Sandridge's condition was reported as serious. He received a charge of buckshot in the back and legs. Paul Wansler, a member of the party, was shot in the side, and attending physicians said he had only a slight chance for recovery. The other victims, Brown Talbot, mine foreman, and H. P. Curran, will recover.

State troopers and county detectives, using bloodhounds, are trailing the assailants.

Mr. Sandridge was a delegate to the last Democratic national convention.

LEPANNEN HURT AS STEINKE PINS HIM IN MAT GO

Weight and strength gave Hans Steinke, the ponderous German grappler, a victory over Charles Lepannen of Finland in the main event of the wrestling show conducted by Joe Coffey and Ed White at the Coliseum last night.

The only fall of the match took place after the men had been on the mat for 1:04:25. After the grapplers went off the mat and were called to the center of the ring to standing positions by Referee Ernst Korte, Lepannen attempted to pick up his opponent with a leg hold. In his effort the Finn lost his balance, fell backward, and Steinke landed squarely on top with his 265 pounds of beef.

Lepannen is injured. The fall, combined with the added pressure of Steinke falling on him, knocked out the Finn and the German pinned him with a reverse body lock. Lepannen remained on the mat and it was necessary to call doctors into the ring to partially revive him. After the fifteen minute rest Lepannen was brought back to the ring, but was physically unable to continue the contest. As a result the match was forfeited to the German.

While Steinke was the winner, the lion's share of the match went to Lepannen, who gave a clever exhibition of defensive wrestling. Steinke was unable to clamp on his body scissors and neither was he able to apply any other holds for the desired result. The Finn always managed to wriggle himself out of body holds and head locks. Only once did Steinke put on a toe hold which caused his opponent any worry and Lepannen broke it after a great effort.

Hans Shows Little Class. Steinke did not show much improvement since last winter when he defeated Stanislaus Zhyzko at the stockyards in a one fall match. He had about a fifty pound advantage in weight and was much stronger. At times he seemed to be a boy but at no time did he show the science of a heavyweight who claims to be a contender for the world's title held by Ed "Strangler" Lewis.

The German was slow. He missed numerous opportunities and it was evident to the crowd he must learn more before he can be considered a championship possibility. As the match wore on and it appeared that Lepannen was too strong and heavy many spectators left the building.

Gardini-London Draw. In the semi-windup Renato Gardini, claimant of the Italian heavyweight title, and Jim London, the Greek, wrestled 25:00 to a draw. It was a fast bout, featured by rough tactics on the part of both men.

Freddie Meyers of the Chicago Hebrew Institute won over "Wild Jack" Smith of New York in the one fall opener. Meyers won the fall and match in 24:35, Smith conceding the fall after Freddie clamped on a toe lock.

Whitlock Zhyzko, the Pole, won from Andreas Costanos in the other one fall encounter. Whitlock took the fall and contest in 36:11 with a body hold.

About 5,000 mat fans paid approximately $7,000 to see the show.

SMITTY—HE'LL REACH THE "GOAL" ALL RIGHT!

In the Wake of the News

Chicago's Fire.
D EAT WALKER: "It is often said that the Ogden house was the only building left standing in the burned area on the north side. This is not a correct statement. A small frame house on Lincoln place, corner Hudson avenue about midway between Sophia (now Garfield) avenue and Webster was saved by its owner in a novel manner.

There were vacant spaces contiguous and Pollockman, Baltimore, who lived there, was encouraged to believe he could preserve his home. He tore up the wooden sidewalks, raked the leaves in piles and burned them, and prepared for a battle with the flames in every conceivable manner.

"When the fire reached him, he covered his house with blankets and carpets which he kept moistened. But when the dearest wave of destruction came sweeping down upon him, he found his plan was a failure.

"Even then his courage and presence of mind did not forsake him. His cellar contained a store of oil, and with that fuel he fought his foe and triumphed. His hands were burned, his side was gone, but his home stood amid the general ruin, and he had won the victory in the face of fearful odds."

"History of Chicago." Vol. 1, page 79. With the passing of time, the Ogden residence disappeared, but this little cottage on 2121 Hudson avenue still stands—a real relic of the Chicago fire of '71.

An Old Timer.

On Sunday night at about 11:30 p. m., Oct. 8, 1871, Matthias Schaffer, whose duty was ringing the time of day and watching the fire, was perched near the top of the dome of the old courthouse. Being struck by wood shavings, borne by the strong wind, he sounded the first general alarm.

Standing on the south side of the river at La Salle or Clark, a person with perfect vision could look north, west and east and see nothing but ruins. It was then Oct. 8, 1871.

BY CHICAGOAN

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—W. M. Wright, the Chicago horse power magazine, this afternoon made the biggest trotting horse deal in America in years when he purchased Belwin, 2:04 1/2, from H. J. Schlesinger of Milwaukee for a reported price of $50,000.

Mr. Wright owns the Calumet stable and recently bought from Schlesinger the noted Fairland farm here, where Belwin is in the stud and where he will remain. It was announced tonight.

Belwin is by McKenny out of Belle Wrenne by Adonis and was unbeaten on the Grand Circuit as a 4 year old in 1914. He has been in the stud several years and already has several good youngsters to his credit.

BUSY TIME FOR SHEA IF HE BEATS GARCIA

TRIBUNE DECISIONS
Decisions of The Tribune boxing representatives are:
At Saratoga, Pa.—Alfonso Joe Gans beat Andy Palmer 10:15. Tony Palmer knocked out Frankie McCarthy 1:45.

Eddie Shea, the west side Italian 124 pounder who meets Frankie Garcia of Memphis in one of the star bouts of the indoor boxing show at East Chicago tomorrow night, will be matched to meet Pats Sarmiento, the Filipino, for either the next show or in Milwaukee, if he wins over his opponent.

As honors in the Sarmiento-Sanger bout in Milwaukee last Monday night were about even, Promoter Owego believes a match between the Filipino and Shea will be an attractive affair. Promoter Frank Mulken intends to use Shea later in the season and plans to send him against the Filipino in the event Owego does not land the match.

Shea together with other fighters on the card completed training yesterday at local gymnasiums. Connie Curry of Sioux City, Ia., and Phil O'Dowd of Columbia, who have the feature position on the card, boxed with their sparring partners and neither suffered any injuries. The same was true of Jimmy Finley of Louisville and Patsy Rocco of East Chicago.

Fourteen bouts will be decided tonight at the Mullen gymnasium, where the weekly amateur show will be held. Instructor Dave Barry has arranged an interesting program.

Morris Kling, 31, Louis 125 pounder, is making Chicago his headquarters and placed himself under the tutelage of Jack Montgomery and Art Winch.

Pats Sarmiento, the Filipino, who boxed a draw with Joe Sanger in Milwaukee Monday night, passed through Chicago on his way to New York.

FARM AND GARDEN RIDGWAY

START THESE FLOWERS
THIS FALL

ANY time between now and the middle of this month is a good time to plant hardy annuals, and this is a favorable fall for working in the flower garden. The ground is in good condition, so that seeds should germinate in a hurry.

There is a general misunderstanding among amateur flower gardeners who think that spring is the only time to plant annuals. That is true with some annuals, but the hardy kinds can be sown in the fall, producing some of the earliest and most beautiful blossoms.

Many of the hardy kind will come up this fall and grow until they are cut down by the freezing weather. There is an unusual interest in setting tulip bulbs this fall, and here comes a chance to use the hardy annuals by sprinkling Shirley poppy or Marigolds in the beds. The annuals hide the maturing tulip buds and the larkspur in the early ones. Bachelor buttons, however, may be sown any place this fall.

LADKIN LAME; MAY BE OUT OF EPINARD RACE

Ladkin, Ky., Oct. 8.—Ladkin, one of the main hopes of the east in the international special race here Saturday, pulled up lame after a mile and a quarter trout here today. A sore inflamed by the hard track, was given as the cause, but veterinarians were sanguine over his chance of getting into the last international against the great Epinard.

August Belmont's colt went the full international distance of 2:10 1/4, breaking the last quarter. He was given his head but a short time, and then checked. It was while being led off the track that a slight limp was noticed and almost immediately the report spread that the eastern contender had gone hopelessly lame and would not start.

Epinard Works Six Furlongs.
Epinard, Pierre Wertheimer's creditable performer, breeched three-quarters of a mile between races, negotiating the distance in 1:15. John Everett Haynes held his mount hard all the way.

Haynes accepted a mount on Be-whitching in the second race of today's Ladonia card in order to acoustom himself to the local starter's method of letting the barrier go. Be-whitching finished seventh in the race which had twelve starters.

Sarazen in Fast Trial.
Sarazen, Princess Doreen and Chilhowee were given workouts today. The Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt gelding covered the full distance with his weight up in the fast time of 2:04.

Princess Doreen, the hope of Kentucky and the west, went a mile and a quarter with her weight up in 2:05 1/4. Chilhowee breeched five-eighths of a mile in 1:21 1/4. He carried full weight and appeared to be in good condition.

NATIONAL AUTO RACE TITLES AT STAKE SUNDAY

National championship dirt track races are announced for Hawthorne next Sunday by the National Motor Speedway association, which held the midwest title events there Sept. 28.

Entry blanks have been mailed to all the leading dirt track racers in the United States eligible for the events. Ray Lamkin and Fuzzy Davidson were the cup winners in 1923. Each will be asked to defend the title which he won at Hawthorne. Lamkin, a dark horse, entered by Louis and Arthur Chevrolet, defeated Cliff Woodbury and other strong entrants in a sensational race. Davidson won the light car championship.

Woods and Waters

WHEN THE GROUSE ARE IN THICK COVER.

AONA, Wis.—The grouse season who in years past have had easy picking along the old logging roads through the woods up here have found that it's an entirely new story this season. Rainy, windy weather kept the birds in the brush during the last few days and it took a dog to dig 'em out of the cover, which is almost impenetrable in some places.

Have you ever tried to drop a grouse in a jungle of young poplars where you couldn't see more than twenty feet? Bagging a bird under such conditions can hardly be classed as easy shooting, and many a fat partridge in the brush has made his getaway unscathed as the helpless hunter sought his luck.

However, the sunnier usually comes away in the hope that a few shots may stir through the branches and drive the bird, with the result that some of the young poplar trees up here look as if a hail storm had struck 'em.

As E. Tefft, the New York sportsman who is trying his hand on Wisconsin, pointed out, he had cut up by his shooting enough killing wood to last a family all winter.

AUGIE TAKES 2 MORE BLOCKS FROM "MAUP"

Playing a brilliant game of billiards in the day and night games yesterday, Augie Kieckhefer took the third and fourth blocks of his 200 point cushion match against Pierre Maupome, taking the lead in the match with a total of 296 points against Maupome's 200.

BUCKEYES TO USE AERIAL GAME AT IOWA SATURDAY

By Walter Eckersall.

When Ohio State and Iowa, two unopposed western conference eleven, clash at Iowa City Saturday in the only game of the day between two Big Ten teams, the forward pass combined with strong running attacks should be the principal reasons of attack.

Ever since Coach Dr. John Wilce has been in charge of the gridiron situation at Ohio State, the Buckeyes have been known for their forward passing game.

Last season Ohio State used the same sort of attack, with Workman the ace of the offense. Unfortunately, however, Coach Wilce had no players of the caliber of Workman to rely on to carry the ball most of the time in the running attack.

That Coach Wilce will pursue his old tactics may be gathered after a session from the general play of his team against Purdue last Saturday. It was one of the characteristic Ohio forward passes which gave the Buckeyes a 7-0 victory over the Boilermakers, and the same combination of Hunt to Karow will be much in evidence on the weekend-end at Iowa.

One Pass Is Enough.

In fact it is the general belief of football men in the section that Wilce is satisfied to get away with just one forward pass out of fifteen or more attempts. He works on the theory of keeping trying, and just at a time when the defensive players are tired and believe they have Ohio's forward passing game stopped, the pass is successfully executed. In the days of Harry and Stinchcomb, it is only a matter of history to relate the time these stars broke loose with passes for the scores which won the games.

It was this powerful attack which threw a scare into Illinois last year in the last game of the season for the two teams. Illinois won the game, 10-0, after one of the most thrilling struggles of the year, and the Buckeyes were trying with forward passes until the final whistle was blown.

Hawks to Use Illini System.

Iowa will undoubtedly use the Illini style of play, with which Coach Wilce is familiar. It will consist of a backward shift with a majority of the plays sent on the wing. The balanced line will be used and some of the ball carriers shot back off the wing. The forward passing game will be the Iowa end cross-crossing behind the Ohio defensive line will also be brought into play, with the eligible backs going straight down the field.

In fact, Coach Ingwersen knows enough about the short and long passing game to make things extremely interesting for the Ohio secondary defense.

Play of the two lines will have a decided bearing on the result. If the forwards do not hold to permit the necessary delay for eligible offensive players to get down the field and out into the open to receive forward passes, these formations will be practically worthless. The line men must also block long enough to permit the passers to get away their attempts clean and accurately.

No one better than Wilce and Ingwersen appreciate the value of a strong line in this modern game of football. All the forward passers and receivers are absolutely worthless if they are not given the proper support by the forwards and taking all sides of this game into consideration, it will be the line men who will decide the issue in this important battle for both teams.

CARDINALS SEEK THIRD PRO WIN AGAINST MARINES

A battle royal is promised at Comiskey park next Sunday when the unbeaten Chicago Cardinals, led by Paddy Driscoll, attempt to ring up their third straight victory in the National Football league, opposing the famous Minneapolis Marines. The south siders, realizing the nature of the contest, have had their redoubled their training for the clash.

Prominent among the stars to appear here with the Minneapolis contingent are: Tierney and Duggan, formerly forwards at St. Thomas; Simon and Scott, ends from Hamline; Johns, a guard from Michigan; and Baril, a tackle from St. Thomas. Howie, the Marine quarterback back, learned football at St. Thomas, which has turned out a galaxy of stars. Norton, one of the leading backs, hails from De Paul and is well known locally.

Seats Still Available for Maroon-Brown Game

Although the Brown-Chicago football game to be played at Stagg field Saturday holds promise of being one of the best of the season, not all tickets have been sold for the game. According to the university football ticket committee, due to the comparatively small number of seats sold to students and alumni of the distant school, Big delegations of alumni of Harvard, Princeton, and other eastern universities have reserved seats for the game.

Body of Columbia Grigger Is Home for Burial

Meriden, Conn., Oct. 8.—The body of Harry R. Fontanella, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fontanella of this city, was received here for burial today from New York, where he was a sophomore at Columbia and a member of the varsity football squad. His death followed several days of unconsciousness after he had been found wandering near his home in New York. He was last seen by college mates after engaging in a football scrimmage.

STAGG LASHES SQUAD INTO FIERY PRACTICE

By Walter Eckersall.

A zealous session at the Midway yesterday, participated in by the University of Chicago varsity football men and the freshmen, was enough to re-ignite Maroon spirit a bit. And the spirited work of the varsity men, who romped through the frosh in spectacular style at times, served to stir hopes of a crisp in the Missouri game.

Credit for the efficacy of the Maroon work against the yearlings goes to Coach Stagg, who stormed about the practice field, lashing and goading the varsity to greater endeavor. The result was not only a fiery offense but improvement in mechanics and greater coordination.

FOOTBALL CAMPS

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Notre Dame is making a supreme effort to strengthen its squad in the art of interior defense before tackling the Army and Princeton in the next two weeks. Ends and backs are receiving the instruction under the personal supervision of Coach Knute Rockne, assistant, while Lieb and Anderson, assistants, are bringing pressure to bear along this line in the ranks of the tackles and guards.

Capt. Adam Walsh again is taking an active part in the daily workouts and has been spending most of his time instructing prospective centers. Scrimmage continues to conclude the afternoon's session.

FOOTBALL CAMPS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Weakness in the Wolverine forward wall was indicated in today's scrimmage with the Maroons. The backs could hardly get past the line of scrimmage because of a first class line. The varsity did succeed in gaining 17 yards when Steve Brooks saw for a 50 yard run and again for 75 yards. Rockne did not see for 50 yards and also for 30 yards. The performance of the Maroons was good. The performance of the Maroons was good. The performance of the Maroons was good.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—With Coach Rockne on crutches with a hand and leg, the Maroons will be expected to do against Missouri, repeatedly streaking through the line for good gains and once reaching eighty yards for a touchdown. At full back Fred Law showed a heap of vim. He was succeeded by Austin McCarthy and Gene Francis.

FOOTBALL CAMPS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—A notable incident at last night's practice was the shifting of Bill Abbott to quarter back, the position he occupied last year. It is believed that the midway that Dutch Burrows will start at quarter Saturday. Bob Curley's knee is not improving, and Abbott's ability in nabbing passes and his plentiful brown may be brought into play.

FOOTBALL CAMPS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Proceeding the practice game Graham Kerwin, Harrison Barnes, Harry Thomas, and others tried their hand at kicking forward passes under instruction of defensive work directed by Prof. Stagg.

FOOTBALL CAMPS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Cheered on by several hundred Brown undergraduates, Brown university grid squad, twenty-seven strong, accompanied by Dean Randall, Dr. Fred W. Marvel, athletic director, Coach Robinson, Staff and Marshall, managers, physicians and trainers, boarded a train for Chicago bound at 9 o'clock, unhampered by serious injuries of any kind. The Brown gridgers are confident that their smashing offense, as disclosed in the Chicago game last Saturday will turn the trick against the Maroons.

FOOTBALL CAMPS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Much uncertainty attached itself to any speculation regarding the forward reserve corps, but for outstanding performers among them. Of the twenty-seven men making the trip, four are ends; four tackles; five guards, and two centers.

FOOTBALL CAMPS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—No scrimmage was held yesterday. The scrubs, using Chicago offensive plays, walked through a dummy scrimmage with the varsity. The players completed the trip today.

FOOTBALL CAMPS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Broadie, Tabor, Sheldon, and Stiller, ends; Neuhart, Rayner, Roman, and O. F. Smith, tackles; H. Manager, McDermott, Skelton, McGrilla, and Johnson guards; Schaefer and J. Hester, centers; Ecker, Pitzer, Elum, For, Highten, and Perry, half backs; Mischel, Pohnman, and Sweet, full backs.

FOOTBALL CAMPS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—From end to end the Racine Legion has an array of former western favorites. "Beath" Halliday, formerly of the Maroons, and Brumm of Wisconsin are at the wings. The tackles are both former Badgers, Murray and Smith. At guards are Ralph King, the former Maroon, and Benjamin of Marquette. Minton of Decatur is at center.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

Injuries have done a lot to upset the plans of the Loyola mentors. Wiatrak and Lamont, the backbone of the Loyola offense, will be unable to start, due to injuries sustained in recent scrimmages. However, Capt. Adams and Blinger, who have been on the shelf since the home eleven and Millikin university of Decatur. The Loyola squad is

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

Things were rather quiet in the Northwestern university grid camp yesterday, for no new casualties were added to the list of injured. Plays used by the University of Cincinnati eleven, which meets Northwestern Saturday, were used by the frosh in a long scrimmage against the varsity.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

At times the yearlings made a few gains with the Bearcat plays, but as a rule the varsity snatched up the assaults. The few times that the frosh were able to gain were when Gustafson and Lewis managed to drive through, but these two men would bolster any college team.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

The backbone of the Cincinnati attack lies in the ability of the Bradford brothers, the two big stars of the invaders.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

After weeks spent in hard practice the long awaited championship race in the city public high school football league will get under way Saturday, when eight games will be played in two sections. The league again is divided into two sections, division A and division B, which is composed of teams from schools with an enrollment of less than 500 boys.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

Last year's champion, Lane Tech, will open its league play with Austin. The Tech machine has been weakened by loss of experienced men through graduation, but this year's representatives have given a good account of themselves. Austin, too, has done impressive work in sports.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

Tilden, which shared with Bowen the runner up position in last year's race, will have its toughest assignment in meeting Lindbom. Other games on the city league card Saturday will bring together Schurz and Lake View, Austin and Lane, Bowen and Harrison, Hyde Park and Englewood, Waller and Parker, and Phillips and Morgan Park. The last four named teams are in division B.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

The executive committee of the Illinois Junior Golf association has formally met, on account of next Monday being observed as Columbus day, to make a change in the plans of the inaugural championship tournament, which will be played at Big Oaks. Instead of playing thirty-six holes in the first match round of the association title meet and the class championship, the frame will be cut to eighteen holes.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

The players are requested to be on hand at 7:30 a. m., sharp. In case of a default by any of the contestants in the title bracket, the player making the lowest score outside of the sixteen qualifying, will be substituted.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

THEOBALD NAMED CAPTAIN. New York, Oct. 8.—John Theobald of New York City, nine runner and member of the cross country team for two years, today was elected captain of the Columbia university track team.

MOON MULLINS—BARGAIN DAY

By Walter Eckersall.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The Ohio State gridgers this afternoon experienced their second day of hard practice in preparation for Iowa. Coach Wilce opened the session by giving each of his varsity players a half a dozen tries at tackling a specific ball carrier in the face of a blocker. Then the scrubs and Iowa's play against the varsity were held for half an hour. Time after time the varsity men, made fighting men by the coach's tough lashing, broke through and threw the second string backs for five or ten yard gains.

The New York Times.

New York, Oct. 3.—[Special.]—Operations on the New York stock exchange today again showed little change from the last few days. Trading was on a reduced scale, due primarily to the Jewish holiday and the baseball series.

The movement of prices on the whole was irregular during the greater part of the day. Numerous stocks registered declines of a point or more, especially among the high priced issues, but these losses were offset by gains in other sections of the list.

Average Spots Lower.

The market, as a whole, recorded a slight loss of ground as compared with Tuesday's closing, as shown by the averages. Public utility stocks again were prominent because of their decline. General Electric and American Water Works registered the sharpest declines. North American also was lower, as were American Sugar and Chandler, which sold down to a new low record.

Bonds again showed great firmness. In the foreign exchange market rates on India and China moved up sharply, accompanying a rise of 1/2 cent in the gold price.

WALL STREET NOTES

Further accumulation of Jordan Motors stock yesterday to a new high record for the year at 35 1/2, recent buying being based on high current earnings. New peak prices were also attained by Packard, preferred, Nash Motors, preferred, International Nickel preferred, and Federal Light and Traction preferred. Chandler touched another new low at 30 1/2, and then rallied to 30 3/4, for a net loss of 1 1/2 on the day. General Motors and Great Western Sugar also sold at new low prices.

General Electric closed more than 3 points lower at 20 1/2, after having sold as high as 23 1/2. Consolidated Gas of Baltimore and Nash Motors each broke about 5 points, while losses of 2 points or more were recorded by American Water Works, West Penn Power, and Virginia Railway and Power. Central Railroad of New Jersey broke 18 points on this side. North American, the most active feature in the public utility group, dropped 1 1/2.

Strength of the local traction issues was attributed to the somewhat unexpected declaration of a dividend of a quarter cent per share by the Manhattan Railway stocks by the Interborough Rapid Transit company. U. S. Steel common fluctuated within a range of five-eighths of a point, closing unchanged at 107 1/2. Madison and Bluebonnet showed small fractional recessions. American CCA, which had sold as high as 18 1/2 in the early trading, later fell back to 18 1/4, up 1/4 on the day.

Selling pressure against the public utility shares again carried several of those issues into lower ground in the curb market. American Gas and Electric lost 4 points. Fractional recessions were recorded by many others. In contrast, American Light and Traction scored a gain of 3/4. The weakness in pipe line stocks had a depressing effect on the popular oil. Standard Oil of Ohio closed 1/2 point on a small turnover, and Prairie Oil and Gas and Prairie Pipe Line each lost 2 points. Gillette Safety Razor closed 3/4 lower.

In the bond market, St. Paul 4s of 1925 rallied more than 3 points, but lost about half their gain before the close. Most of the other active 4 1/2s fell. Issues showed small fractional gains. Colorado and Southern 4 1/2s were among the few weak spots dropping 1/4. A few public utility mortgages yielded in sympathy with the shares.

SUGAR MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—SUGAR.—Raw, unchanged at 6.08c duty paid for Cuba in absence of sales. Raw features were quiet and subject to small orders either way. Covering and trade buying seemed early advanced at 1.03c, but closed prices were unchanged to 1/2 point lower. Refined sugar was unchanged at 11.67c for fine granulated. Refined futures were nominal. Prices follow:

U. S. COTTON REPORT

The crop reporting board of the United States department of agriculture estimates, from the reports and data furnished by crop correspondents, field statisticians, and collaborating state boards (or departments) of agriculture and extension departments, that the condition of the cotton crop on Oct. 1 was 53.5 per cent of a normal, as compared with 53.4 on Sept. 14, 59.9 on Sept. 1, 49.3 on Sept. 25, 1923, and a ten year average condition of 52.1 on Aug. 15 and 50.1 on Sept. 25, 1923. Judging from the relation of conditions on Sept. 25 and Oct. 25 to final yields in former years, the condition of 53.5 per cent on Oct. 1 indicates a yield per acre of about 148.0 pounds and a total production of about 12,499,000 bales of 500 pounds gross.

CHICAGO: STOCK TRANSACTIONS.

Dow's gains, shares		Wednesday, Oct. 8, 1936		Dow's gains, shares
Year	1936	Year	1935	Year	1934
1936	55,000	1935	55,000	1934	10,675,000

Chicago stocks were generally quiet yesterday, following the New York market in reflection of the Jewish holiday. Further settling of United Lumber and Power & Common brought that issue down 24. Hurley Machine showed a slight advance, but was held back by the fact that the company had no new proposals, due to the absence of news of the trial of officers of the merger proposal. It is understood completion of the deal now rests entirely in the hands of officials of the General Electric company. The stock market was quiet, with a few exceptions. Wrigley was up 4, and International Lamp gained 4 1/2. Montgomery Ward was up 1/2. Stewart-Warner closed up 1/2. Wad Mills was off 1/2. Stewart-Warner closed unchanged. On small sales Mid-West Utilities gained a point and United Trust declined 2 points.
